

About The Training:

Participants will learn how to:

- Evaluate Math intervention Programs
- Use progress monitoring to measure student gains
- Use Math coaches to improve student performance
- Incorporate effective strategies into a school improvement plan
- Utilize funding sources to leverage results

About The Presenters:

Janet Fender, M.Ed. has twenty years teaching experience and has assisted districts all across the country to implement effective math and reading programs.

Leanne Ketterlin Geller, Ph.D. is an Assistant Professor in educational leadership and the director of research and teaching at the University of Oregon.

Marcy Stein, Ph.D. is a Professor at the University of Washington, Tacoma.

Diane Kinder, Ph.D. is Associate Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs and Professor for the Education Program at the University of Washington, Tacoma.

Diane and Marcy co-authored, "Designing Effective Mathematics Instruction".

The Following Should Attend:

Middle School teams including: Principals, math teachers, Curriculum Directors, Special Education Directors

Improving Middle School Math Performance for Struggling Learners

Sponsored by:
State Department of Education, Bureau of Special Population Services

When and Where:

September 11th – 13th, 2006
9:00 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.
Oxford Suites
1426 S Entertainment Avenue
Boise, Idaho 83709
Phone: 208-322-8000

Registration:

Registration must be completed online beginning August 18, 2006. To Register go to the Idaho Training Clearinghouse, <http://www.idahotc.com>, and click on "Register for Training." Select the Southwest Region Menu. Select this training. Order a "ticket" to attend.

Registration is open until filled

Capacity: 120

Cost:

There is no charge for the Workshop. You will only have to pay per diem and travel. A block of rooms has been reserved for a cost of $73.00 per night under the name "Math Intervention workshop" at the Oxford Suites. For reservations call 322-8000.

For More Information, Contact:

Russ Hammond
rmhammond@sde.idaho.gov
(208) 332-6919

Bonnie Steiner-Leavitt
BLSteiner-Leavitt@sde.idaho.gov
(208) 332-6925